

Leading good autism practice

1

Day

Meet lead practitioners from a range of organisations to discuss, share and develop practice. Prepare your setting for Ofsted inspections.

Who is this training for?

For staff who may lead or train other staff in their setting, taking a leadership role with a responsibility for developing provision. This may include:

- childminders
- nursery nurses/assistants
- head teachers
- teachers
- senior management
- any other leadership role

What will you learn?

- To enhance your knowledge and understanding of good autism practice.
- To help you question, evaluate and develop practice within your setting.
- To use tools to evaluate your knowledge of autism, to audit staff training needs and to gain an overview of whole setting practice using the AET early years autism standards and autism competency framework.
