Tuesday, May 17th
9.45am to 11.15am

Help to foster a positive culture towards autism in your setting and help your children and young adults with autism to thrive emotionally and academically among their peers by becoming an Autism Champion. The Specialist Autism Support Service are aiming for all schools and education settings in B&NES to have an identified 'Autism Champion', who can support pupils with autism and their families. Autism champions can be any professional from the settings above who would like to become an advocate for their children and young adults with autism. The network meets three times a year and each time there will be:

- An opportunity to network with other Autism Champions
- A training focus
- Sharing good practice
- News and updates
- Sharing of resources
- Focussed discussions
